

RECOGNITION BY SCHOOL COMMITTEE

P1509

The School Committee may recognize students, staff, citizens, organizations, and businesses for their activities, efforts, and leadership that are of exceptional manner.

Persons will be recognized for their involvement with a particular school or with the system as a whole or for a specific academic, artistic, or athletic achievement. Recognitions may be for groups as well as for individuals.

Administrators will make recommendations to the Superintendent. The list will then be reviewed with the School Committee chair to determine recipients.

This recognition will occur during regularly scheduled School Committee meetings.
