

BLUEPRINT

P2110

The “Blueprint for the Westford Public Schools” is a statement of the vision of the programs for the school system. The document will identify objectives, goals, and action plans to meet the vision.

The School Committee, in conjunction with the Leadership Team, shall review, modify, and annually update the “Blueprint.” During the review process, the School Committee will encourage the collaboration of parents, residents, and the greater Westford community.

The “Blueprint” will influence many budget decisions and will be updated prior to the development of the annual budget.

The School Committee will annually approve the “Blueprint.”
