

FUNDING PROPOSALS AND APPLICATIONS

P3406

The School Committee will encourage the administration to seek and secure all possible sources of state, federal, and other special funds that will enhance educational opportunities for the children in the Westford Public Schools.

The Superintendent or designee will maintain a file of funds available to the school system under the various state and federal programs, and in what manner these funds could be used in the school system.

The Superintendent or designee will seek out and coordinate the development of proposals for all specially funded projects. The School Committee shall be informed of all funded projects.

The Superintendent is authorized to sign all reports for these projects and will be responsible for the proper expenditure of funds received for such projects.
