

EVALUATION OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE OPERATIONS

P7208

The School Committee will annually establish realistic objectives related to School Committee procedures and relationships. In the spring of each year, the School Committee will measure its performance against the stated objectives.

The following areas of School Committee operations and relationships are representative of those in which objectives may be set and progress appraised:

1. Communication with the public.
2. School Committee - Superintendent relationships.
3. School Committee - staff relationships.
4. School Committee member development and performance.
5. Policy development.
6. Educational leadership
7. Fiscal management.
8. School Committee meetings.
9. Performance of subcommittees of the School Committee.
10. Interagency and governmental relationships.

A summary of the School Committee self-evaluation will be presented to the public. The School Committee will utilize the results of the self-evaluation and formulate a new series of objectives.
